Aspects as Harmonic Lessons

$10/$15 members/non-members

Based upon the work of David Hamblin in his new book, The Spirit of Numbers and the current work of David Cochrane with Vibrational Astrology, this talk will focus on the gold to be found by looking at aspects from a harmonic perspective.

We will explore the patterns that are formed by a number of aspects that are often overlooked by most astrologers. What will emerge is a way to look deeper into the natal chart to see what even minor aspects can teach us about our clients and ourselves.

Arlene will offer her own perspective on the lessons that can be learned by studying all aspects as vibrations. This deeper look at the aspects has the potential to teach us how to honor the truth of who we are.

BIO: Arlene has been a professional astrologer for 23 years and consults with clients throughout the United States. She has served as Program Director and President of the Arizona Society of Astrologers.

In addition, she performs at parties and special events as her alter ego “Madame Cellulita,” The Mistress of Good Fortune.

She has been a student of the intuitive arts for over 30 years. In addition to studying many types of astrology, Arlene is knowledgeable in Tarot, the I Ching, Numerology, and the Enneagram.

Her curiosity and love of learning combined with her natural gift of clairvoyance have allowed her to create an eclectic and unique approach to spiritual counseling.

Arlene’s education includes a B.A. in Organizational Management and Leadership and an M.A. in Spiritual Counseling. Her studies included training in Journalism, Theatre, and Group Facilitation. She has performed in a number of venues in the Phoenix area.
