

TUCSON ASTROLOGERS' GUILD

May 10 & 11, 2019

April Elliott Kent

Location: ASAOM (Arizona School of Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine)
& Han University 2856 E. Fort Lowell Rd. Tucson, AZ 85716

Friday, May 10, 7:30 pm

$10/$15 members/non-members, UA and PCC students $5 off with ID

OPEN to all levels of knowledge and interest in astrology.

Saturn in Synastry: Soul mates or Cell mates?

Talk of soul mates conjures romantic visions of gentle, idealistic, and unquestioning devotion. But maybe soul mates are designed to help us do the very hard work of becoming better versions of ourselves. That's when it's time to talk about another "s" word: Saturn. Saturn connections between two charts offer a clear roadmap to identifying the work we have to do together—and a cautionary tale against letting self-improvement take all the fun out of love.

Saturday Workshop, May 11, 1 – 5:00 pm,

$20/$25 members/non-members, UA and PCC students $5 off with ID.

OPEN to all levels of knowledge of astrology.

Your Secret Garden: Transiting Saturn and the Progressed Lunar Cycle

Saturn is the anchor and compass, the ever-fixed mark that helps us keep score of our lives. Are we as healthy, wealthy, and successful as Saturn demands? Saturn's cycle, to a great extent, insists that we catalog our success in reaching our goals in a way that's recognizable. But the progressed lunar phase helps us monitor something very subtle, which is our inner development. It's a symbol of personal development rather than impersonal achievement – of the unmet desires and emotions that may haunt us even as we achieve Saturn's ambitions.

The great convergence of these cycles every 29 years are moments of momentous importance. We certainly talk a lot about Saturn's return. Even non-astrologers have often heard the expression and have some dim idea of what it's about – growing up, confronting mortality, reckoning with success or lack of it. But few reference the quieter inner reckoning of the progressed lunar phase return, which is every bit as influential in how we view the overall success of our lives.

April Elliott Kent, astrologer and author, www.bigskyastrology.com facebook.com/bigskyastrology
Books include: "The Essential Guide to Practical Astrology" and "Star Guide to Weddings." Her latest book, "Astrological Transits," is now available from Fair Winds Press!

Saturday, May 11, 11:00 am – 12:00 pm FREE CLASS facilitated by Gael Chilson.
Understanding progressions starting with the Moon. It's all about timing!