MARK JONES

“The role of the planetary nodes through collective evolution”

In this talk, Mark explores how the planetary nodes of Jupiter outwards reveal significant events in the collective evolution.

Mark will preview some choice research and insights from his upcoming book on the planetary nodes through selected modern historical events that reflect our shared collective evolution.

Jupiter's nodes might reveal to us the collective evolution of religious and cultural ideologies as expressed through the structure of our civilisations. Just as the nodes of Saturn and Pluto, also in Capricorn, say something about the need of the collective Soul to evolve through cleansing periods of adjustment where it seems that our political and social apparatus is eroding beyond repair. Understanding these cycles of gain and decay we can have hope that all is not lost!

Mark Jones is an Astrologer, Psychosynthesis Therapist and Hypnotherapist based in South Wales and working with clients and students all over the world. Mark is a regular speaker and workshop leader in North America. Mark's first book explains his approach Healing the Soul: Pluto, Uranus and the Lunar Nodes. Mark's second book The Soul Speaks: the Therapeutic Power of Astrology explores the transformative power of the natal chart reading. Mark's latest book, The Planetary Nodes and Collective Evolution, has just been released. Mark's website www.plutoschool.com. Contact him at markjones@plutoschool.com
