Gary Caton

Working with Extra Zodiacal Constellations and Stars

There are many more Constellations outside the Zodiacal band than within it, and so it is much more likely that our charts contain connections to stars of these lesser known Constellations. By methodically exploring their Nomenclature, Myths and Planetary correspondences, we can learn to bring a whole new layer of Astrology to life for our clients and followers.

Gary P Caton is an Hermetic practitioner integrating diverse traditions, art forms and practices gathered from his spiritual quest over a full Saturn cycle. Initiated an astrologer by a magnificent dream in 1993, he's since become an accomplished counselor, writer, podcaster, teacher, photographer and mage. Gary is the author of Hermetica Triptycha: The Mercury Elemental Year, and host of the popular Hermetic Astrology Podcast. Connect with him at www.DreamAstrologer.com
