Victoria Smoot

"Venus Unchained"

Can we liberate the Venus archetype from its limited and limiting gender-leaning vernacular? The answer is yes! Victoria explores the depth of history, culture, and parallel research in cycles of change. Old comfortable keywords and phrases hold Astrologers back from seeing and using the power and solutions from Venus Mind that we need for an endangered Earth. It is more than a "feminine issue." It means authority and respect in solving human crises moving forward.

BIO: Victoria Smoot has more than 40 years of study and professional practice as an ISAR, CAP and OPA Certified Professional. With a Masters degree in teaching English ESL, she specializes in promoting full literacy and fluency of the Astrological language for self-development of life's meaning and purpose through teaching, consulting, training in Consulting Skills, writing, and editing ISAR International Astrologer as its Editor-in-Chief.
