Nodes' Sign Change

When the nodes change signs every 18 months, there's a collective "sea change," and it's reflected by the new polarity. When the nodes shift from Aries-Libra to Pisces-Virgo on January 11, 2025, we move from cardinal to mutable energy and into very different themes. We can take positive inspiration from Virgo/Pisces' high-vibe characteristics: compassion, flexibility, empathy, sacred service, healing gifts, and sensitivity to underdogs. Of course, the shadows of these signs can become pronounced, making it essential to stay mindful and not slip into martyrdom, victimhood, escapism, self-criticism, sabotage and pity.

This talk will look at the larger nodal cycle and focus on this incoming polarity shift. I'll discuss how Pisces-Virgo "flows" from Aries-Libra with an emphasis on how to work with this energy personally and as part of the collective. The Virgo south node dovetails with another theme I love weaving in, "Falling in Love with Your Chart," which is really an "argument" that nothing is random and that our charts are a perfect reflection of and a road map to our soul's intention for this lifetime.

Understanding both our natal nodal positions and how each transiting cycle can open portals for expanded awareness and evolution can guide us to greater self-acceptance, which is a precursor to self-love, the foundation of all love.

BIO: Suzanne Gerber is a classically trained astrologer, energy and Reiki healer, and "recovering journalist" who uses the birth chart as the foundation for understanding the whole person. She believes that nothing is "fixed in stone" (or the stars) and that every position and aspect offers a multitude of possibilities for expression. As in quantum physics and biology, the more aware and awake—and masterful—we become, the more resources we have to co-create our lives.

Suzanne began her formal astrology studies in NYC in the early 1980s with a protégé of legendary Hungarian astrologer Zoltan Mason. Since then, Suzanne has studied and been initiated in a variety of healing practices and wisdom traditions. For decades, she wrote astrology columns for more than 30 magazines, newspapers and websites, including the AstroTwins, Elle and Inc.com.

From her home near Sarasota, Florida, an energy vortex on the Gulf of Mexico, Suzanne has a private astrology and healing practice, teaches online classes, and mentors and coaches clients around the world. A sixth-house Libra stellium with a Taurus ascendant, she lives with her Taurus partner and two Aquarian cats.
