"How to Weather the Cosmic Storm Happening from 2020 to 2030"

From political upheaval and economic uncertainty to technological acceleration and collective exhaustion, the years between 2020 and 2030 mark one of the most intense transitional eras of modern history.

"In this presentation, I will use astrology to explore the deeper cosmic patterns behind this "storm," including the planetary cycles shaping its duration, purpose, and global impact. More importantly, we will discuss practical and spiritual ways to navigate these turbulent years with greater clarity, resilience, grounding, and self-awareness.

The goal is not fear but understanding how to remain centered and emotionally balanced while profound collective change unfolds around us."
